

New Irvington BART Station Call for Artist RFQ - Deadline October 23, 2020, 11 p.m. PDT

BART Art is pleased to announce a Request for Qualifications for the new Irvington Station. This RFQ is open to artists or artist teams residing in the United States at the time of application. The RFQ is for the design phase of the project. All applications must be submitted through Submittable. There is no cost to apply, simply set-up an account if you do not already have one. All applicants must be U.S. citizens or have legal working status in the United States at the date of application.

Bay Area artists that meet the eligibility requirements set forth above and following are strongly encouraged to apply.

This is an exciting opportunity to collaborate with the station design team on a new BART station located in the Irvington district of Fremont, California. There are several identified opportunities for potential implementation of the artwork throughout the station, as well as new opportunities that are identified by the artist with the station design team. Please refer to the RFQ for concept images of the station and for more information on the identified opportunities.
