

PREVENTION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT IN THE WORKPLACE

Statement of Policy:

The San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District (District) is committed to maintaining a workplace that is free of sexual harassment. In keeping with the District's long-standing Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Policy, sexual harassment in the workplace will not be tolerated. The District is committed to enforcing this policy and to providing State of California mandated training to all of its employees to assist them in dealing sensitively and effectively with this important issue.

All BART employees are responsible for conducting themselves in accordance with the District's rules of employee conduct, including but not limited to, the EEO Policy.

Any employee who believes that they have been the victim of harassment on the basis of sex has the right to file a complaint with the District's Office of Civil Rights. All complaints of sexual harassment will be investigated. Retaliation against an employee for filing a complaint is prohibited by law. All parties involved will be treated in a fair and impartial manner. Employee privacy and confidentiality will be protected to the extent permitted by law.

Employees who violate this policy will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including discharge.

Definition

Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination and is an unlawful employment practice. It is a personal affront to the affected employee and negatively impacts morale, motivation, and job performance. This policy includes sexual harassment of District employees by non-employees. Unwelcome sexual advances, request for sexual favors, and verbal, physical, visual, or other conduct of a sexual nature constitutes sexual harassment and are prohibited by this policy when:

- Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment;
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for an employment decision; and/or
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment.

Reporting

Prompt and appropriate action should be taken to prevent or stop incidents of sexual harassment. Any employee who believes that they have been the target of sexual harassment is encouraged to inform the offending person verbally or in writing that such conduct is unwelcome, offensive, and must stop. An employee, however, is not required to communicate directly with the offending person, or if communication has been ineffective, the employee can complain directly to the Office of Civil Rights or any District manager, supervisor, foreworker or lead personnel. Failure to communicate with the perpetrator does not prevent an employee from filing a complaint, nor does it in any way exonerate the harasser.

Any manager, supervisor, foreworker or lead personnel who witnesses or has knowledge of sexual harassment or other forms of harassment or conduct prohibited by District rules must promptly report such conduct to and consult with the Office of Civil Rights. Managers, supervisors, foreworkers, and lead personnel have a legal responsibility to take action if they know or have reason to believe of a harassing situation. Managers, supervisors, foreworkers and lead personnel must take action to address the situation regardless of the victim's stated desire to pursue or not to pursue the matter.

California Government Code Section 12950.1 Training

California employers with five or more employees must provide at least one hour of sexual harassment and abusive conduct prevention training to non-managerial employees and at least two hours of sexual harassment and abusive conduct prevention training to managerial employees within six months of hire or promotion, and every two years thereafter.

Under the regulations, temporary employees, unpaid interns, unpaid volunteers, and persons providing services pursuant to a contract, may be required to receive the same training as District employees.

For more information on the District's Prevention of Sexual Harassment training, contact the Office of Civil Rights.

Enforcement

The Office of Civil Rights can provide both formal and informal consultation and provide information regarding harassment concerns. Complaints and cases of sexual harassment brought to the attention of the Office of Civil Rights or any District manager, supervisor, foreworker or lead personnel will be handled promptly through a confidential process.

Retaliation against employees alleging sexual harassment or involved as witnesses in a sexual harassment investigation is prohibited.

Complaints of sexual harassment or inquiries concerning the application of federal and state laws and regulations should be directed to:
